Dear Mike

We have received complaints of excessive pet barking. Peaceful enjoyment for everyone in the community is a bedrock of real estate law. Happy Valley HOA rules specifically state that you must restrain your pet from being a nuisance and, most importantly, during certain times of the day.

You have been notified previously concerning this infraction. It is unfortunate that you have decided not to address this problem.

The fine for this infraction is $25.00. Please remit to and mail payment to:
